She Would Be Good Cheer Missionary

EXPRESSES WISH THAT EVERY MAN AND WOMAN KNOW OF HER TRIALS.

"I just wish that every woman, and every man, too, for that matter, could hear of my experience," earnestly declared Mrs. J. B. Hoogkirk, of 825 Gates Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y. "If they all could hear and know, there would not be nearly so many suffering people in a few weeks," she added.

This woman, made wonderfully happy by the benefits which came to her, wants to be a missionary of good cheer, and for that reason, she told her experience, a chapter right out of her life. "I was not able to be like other women," she said. "For nearly ten years I suffered with rheumatism, nervousness and a generally run down condition. I had pains all through my body, I was unable to do my housework, had almost no appetite, and found no pleasure in my meals. My food did not digest properly, but soured on my stomach, giving me headaches, nausea, a bad taste in my mouth and a dull, tired feeling.

"One day a friend told me to try Tanlac and I did. To my surprise, I began to get fine results right from the start. I gained four pounds on the first bottle. My backache was relieved and the pains ceased. Soon I was able to do my housework. My appetite became good, my whole system was built up and I slept well. I am not pale any longer and I am able to enjoy myself at home and traveling, and wherever I go I recommend Tanlac to others as my friend did to me."

Tanlac, the master medicine, is sold exclusively by P. B. Speed, Abbeville; A. S. Cade, Bordaux; J. T. Black, Calhoun Falls; J. H. Bell & Sons, Due West; Cooley & Speer, Lowndesville; R. M. Fuller & Co., McCormick; J. W. Morrah & Son, Mount Carmel; Covin & LeRoy, Wilmington. Price, $1 per bottle straight.

Mrs. J. C. Ellis is in Hodges spending sometime with relatives. She has just returned from a visit to Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Harper in Charleston.
